VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1867. NO. 83.

DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

AN OFFENSIVE GUARDIANSHIP.

A self constituted committee to establish a guardianship over alleged Presidential candidates had no immunity with the master-spirits that have hitherto controlled American politics. That impudence or insolence has only a counterpart in shameless ness by a tame submission to such overseism. It is, therefore, due to the character of the soldier occupying the exalted position of "General" of the armies of the United States, to spurn from his doors those who obtrude themselves upon his hospitalities, and without his express authority are quoted by the ever infamous Chronicle as sponsors for General Grant, "who are now in Washington, and in close and daily intercourse with him." Of these alleged danglers and obtruders is the frantic Washburne, who does not now for the first time show the ass's ears above the lion's skin.—There is also one General Logan, whose traitor utterances before the war caused his arrest by the Federal general in command, and, for aught we know, by General Grant's order himself. We have latterly seen it stated, without contradiction, that Logan has been denounced by his nearest kindred as a rebel sympathizer at that time.

If General Grant is now so unfortunate as to have such men as we have named as his agent or organs—a thing that we do not credit—what of mischief might not be apprehended in public affairs were he in pre-eminent civil station, and surrounded by yet more of the like, and having for his newspaper organ an open inciter to mob violence in Philadelphia, to revolution by force in Maryland, and to a renewal of the horrors of civil strife, by counselling a march hence southward of three armies, one to kill, the other to burn, and a third to ravish beauty and possess property.

Here is a pretty trio of persons to assume before the country that they represent Gen. Grant, or speak his sentiments, being, Paul Pry like, "in close and daily intercourse with him." Men of true nobility of character never thus obtrude themselves upon persons in exalted positions. True self-respect, not less than a proper thought for what relates to the privacies of fireside, family, and home, ever deters a true gentleman from exercising that sort of "freedom which invariably breeds contempt" by those who are made the subject of annoyance, as well as by the observing world without.

If the people shall desire the services of Gen. Grant for the Presidency, they will demand to know his views on leading and exigent public questions in his own words, and over his own true and proper signature. He is much on the record, to his honor and credit, as a Conservative. Of this we do not include his endorsement of the corrupt Stanton. The same high form of testimony (record evidence) will be necessary to the public if he is to be mixed up with the grand political issues that are now agitating the nation.—National Intelligencer.

SENATOR WADE ON THE SITUATION.

"Mack," of the Cincinnati Commercial, has had a long talk with Senator Wade, and gives the substance of it in that paper. Mr. Wade claimed that "it was the nigger which whipped us! We went in on principle, and got whipped. We should have carried the State by a good majority if it hadn't been for the suffrage issue. Still, I am not sorry we made the issue. If it was to do over again I'd be for putting it again, and I'll be for keeping it up until we do win; for, by the eternal God, they can't beat us all the time on a question like that. I had no idea that there were so many Republicans in Ohio who were willing to see negro suffrage in the South, but wouldn't let the few niggers of Ohio vote. That's what got me. They all seemed to be in favor of it as a measure of reconstruction, just as much as I was. I didn't dream that they'd be mean enough to vote against it here.'

He declared that he would not back down on that issue an inch, although the weak-kneed would urge it. All reforms are unpopular at the start, but they win. "It will become harder every year for the Copperheads to beat us on that issue, and they won't beat us very often either, if we only make a bold front."

He refused to commit himself in regard to impeachment, but thought that it ought to have been settled long ago. "If Andy Johnson is guilty, put him out; if not, acquit him." The want of pluck on this question disgusted the people, but Congress dilly-dallied with the question because of the appointments which Congressmen were seeking for their friends. In regard to suffrage, he claimed that Congress had the power to enact a suffrage bill, but he did not know but that it was in violation of the right of each State to regulate suffrage, and he was opposed to consolidation. He could not make anything out of Grant on politics; whenever politics was broached, the General "talked horses." But he insisted that if Grant got his vote or influence "we must have his word backed by some official act showing him to be in sympathy with us."—Mere availability would not answer. The Western Reserve would give no majority to a candidate without a platform, but fifty thousand to a pronounced Republican. He denied that he was opposed to Chase, and thought he could be elected.

He pronounced Mr. Stevens' confiscation bill as "d—d foolery." Such a bill may have been useful during the war, but was now "sheer folly and nonsense." If the negroes of the South wanted land, let them work for it.

THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL.—Some months ago, in Maine, a State Judge pronounced the marriage of a white with a negro null and void, and sentenced the parties to fine and imprisonment, notwithstanding the Civil Rights Bill was pleaded in defence.—The court held that Congress had no right to regulate the local affairs of Maine, and paid no regard to the bill. Last week, in the Court of General Sessions at Dover, Delaware, negro testimony was admitted in a certain case, but Chief Justice Gilpin took occasion to say that this was merely in accordance with the custom of the court, and "that the Civil Rights Bill of Congress, so far as it is assumed to regulate and control the admission or rejection of testimony in the State, was inoperative and void." In this opinion Associate Justice Wootten concurred.

These are but instances of the ordinary respect which is shown that infamous bill by the Judiciary of all the "loyal" States; and yet its acceptance by the South is one of the tests of "loyalty" invented by Radicalism. But why should we fret about bills? A bill more or less constitutional or otherwise, is a small matter while we are under "orders" enforced by bayonets.

SAYINGS OF AN OLD POLITICIAN.

Thurlow Weed, of the Commercial Advertiser, is responsible for the following:

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.—"I was well, took an overdose of Tribune, and here I am!"

The same veteran politician thus speaks of the Conservative victory in New York:

"New York "goes wrong" for two principal and several incidental reasons. The two principal reasons are—first, insisting on negro supremacy in Southern States; and second, the social crusade against Germans. As these are sufficient to account for our "going wrong," it is unnecessary to state the minor reasons."

Also this—

"DO REVOLUTIONS GO BACKWARD?"—Had the question of negro suffrage been submitted to the electors of New York, New Jersey, Ohio and Kansas in 1865 and 1866, those States would have responded affirmatively. Ohio, New Jersey and Kansas have now answered in the negative, not on account of their objections to granting suffrage to their own colored people, but to emphasize their abhorrence of the attempt to make this a mixed Government of black and white. When Sumner warned Senators that they must be prepared to welcome negro colleagues, the key note was sounded."

Fayetteville Street.

I AM NOW RECEIVING MY FALL AND WINter Stock of

Staple and Fancy Dry Goods,

And I can say, with safety, that I have one among the largest and most complete stocks that has ever been brought to this City, either before or since the war,—embracing almost any and everything suitable for Ladies' and Gentlemen's wear.

CALICOES, 10, 12½, 15, and 18 cents per yard.
FRENCH MERINOS, 75 cts. to $1,25 per yard.
DELAINES, POPLINS, and a great variety of other Dress Goods, embracing all the new novelties of the season, and will be sold cheap enough to insure sales.
BROWN DOMESTICS, 12½, 15 and 20 cts. per yard.
BLEACHED DOMESTICS, 12½, 15, 20 and 25 cts. per yard, and all other goods in proportion.
Also, the largest and most varied stock of

CLOTHS,
CASSIMERES,
SATINETS,
TWEEDS,
AND KENTUCKY JEANS

I ever offered to the trade in this City, both as to price and quality.

Also a very fine assortment of White and Colored FLANNELS,

LADIES' CLOAKS,
BREAKFAST SHAWLS,
SQUARE AND LONG SHAWLS,

which will be sold at prices to suit my customers.

Ladies', Misses' and Children's TRIMMED AND UNTRIMMED HATS,—new styles, from 50 cents to $4,00 each.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

The largest and best stock I ever brought to the City, consisting, in part, of J. Miles & Sons' make and others of equally high standing.

Ladies' Pegged Balmorals from $1 to $2.
Ladies Sewed Balmorals, from $1,50 to $3,50.
CREECH'S is the place to come to buy your Boots and Shoes.

Hats, Hats, Hats,

From 75 cts. to $4,00. Don't stop until you come to CREECH'S to buy your Hats. In fact, I think I can meet the expectations of all my customers and the public generally, both as to price and quality of ALL Goods.

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "luck again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost;" some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold out my old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in Store, and opened for inspection.

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.

I told the people to come to Creech's to buy their goods, that I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And I here take the privilege to say, I think they have shown their good judgment.

Don't forget to come to

THE POWHATAN
Steamboat Company's Freight Line of Steamers,
PETERSBURG AND WELDON,
RALEIGH AND GASTON,
NORTH CAROLINA,
WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND WELDON,
ATLANTIC AND NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER,
CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA R. R.,
And their connections.

Time Quick and Rates Low.

THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Salisbury, Morganton, Charlotte, Lincolnton, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Chesterville, Winnsboro', Columbia, Sumterville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near these great Railways and their connections.

The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf, and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh. Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c., &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a SEA Route. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.

Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

☞ To insure transportation over this Inland Fast Line, mark all goods, whether Northward or Southward bound, "VIA PETERSBURG."

☞ Freight landed in Baltimore day following delivery to the Steamers.

Through Receipts are given and fixed rate per 100 pounds guaranteed both ways.

☞ Rates in every case same as via Bay Line and Portsmouth to and from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

N. B.—With regard to last named points, freight is forwarded to and from Petersburg by Philadelphia and N. Y. Steamers.

CONSERVATIVE TICKET FOR THE CONVENTION IN WAKE.

HON. DANIEL G. FOWLE,
REV. BENNET T. BLAKE,
PRIESTLY H. MANGUM, Esq.
DR. JNO. A. McLEAN.

THE ELECTION,—FORM OF THE TICKET.

The second Supplemental Act of Congress provides that "those voting in favor of a Convention shall have written or printed on the ballots, by which they vote for delegates, the words "for a Convention;" and those voting against a Convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a Convention."—One would suppose that there could be no difficulty, in the face of such plain language, as to the character or form of the ticket to be used in the approaching elections. Or, if any specific form of ticket, other than that implied by the phraseology of the above Act, was required, one would suppose that it was high time that it should be prescribed by the District Commander,—the election being only one week off.

The Editor of the Wilmington Journal, some time since, addressed a communication to Gen. Canby, soliciting information in the premises, but he has not been favored with a response. Meanwhile, through the courtesy of Col. Frank, the Post Commandant at Wilmington, he has been shown the form of a ticket, which, "it is said," will be common to both North and South Carolina." According to it, the tickets must have endorsed at the top "Convention and Delegates." Then just below, "For a Convention" or "Against a Convention," as the voter desires. Then the word "Delegate" or "Delegates," as the county or district may be entitled to one or more. The names of the delegates following must be in full, both Christian and surnames. In depositing the ticket in the ballot box, it must be so folded that the words "Convention and Delegates" will be seen.

We have filled a number of orders for tickets at this office, which read thus: "For (or against) a Convention"; then "Delegates for Convention"; then the names. It will thus be observed that there is a slight difference, in form, though not in substance, between the two.

We cannot believe that the slight formal variation will invalidate the ticket as printed by us. If, however, the particular and precise form furnished the Journal is necessary, it is of the highest importance that the fact should at once be made known in General Orders. From the fact that it has not been so promulgated up to this late day, we infer that any ticket complying with the spirit and letter of the Supplemental Act will answer all the ends of the law and will be accepted.

Upon the assumption that the form of ticket furnished it will be required, the Journal concludes that electors will be required to vote either for or against a Convention, in order to vote for delegates. It says:

"As we have said in former issues, our citizens must run no risks in the matter. Conservative delegates must be elected without reference to the question of a Convention. No efforts must be spared in order to accomplish this result. The Conservatives can and must control the Convention. The stakes are too important—success so beneficial—defeat so fatal to our best interest—that no outside question must be permitted to interfere with our support of proper candidates. We must sink personal preferences—business must not prevent our votes being cast—the days of the election must be devoted to North Carolina."

Whatever may be the form of the ticket, and however a man may vote on the question of Convention, and although, if allowed non action as to Convention, he may choose not to vote at all in that matter, we heartily and urgently re-echo the appeal of our cotemporary that nothing be permitted to interfere with our support of proper candidates. We can control the Convention, protect the good name of North Carolina, and save it from the grasp of the spoilers and destructives, if we but will to do it!—There is a white majority of nearly 32,000 in the State, and, inequitable as is the apportionment of voting districts, it is still in the power of the white Conservatives of the State to frustrate the hell designs of Radicalism, if they will all go to the polls and vote. WILL THEY SO DO IT? Never, before, in the history of the government, was so solemn a duty imposed upon them. We implore them, by the duty they owe to themselves, to their children, to the cause of civil liberty, to their own personal security, and to the fair fame of North Carolina, to shake off heedlessness or supineness, and come to the rescue.

Voters of the metropolitan county! Set a good example to your whole brethren throughout the State. You are almost a unit; the number of white men in the county, who will vote the black ticket, is insignificant; come out and vote, AND THE DAY IS YOURS! The enemy are terribly frightened. Smite them vigorously, and they will be scattered and destroyed!

WE UNDERSTAND that "Mr. J.P. Andrews, the Painter," at the black meeting in the Court-House, on Saturday night, attempted to explain away his former declarations that he would never vote for a negro for office! The gist of his explanation is said to have been this: That he didn't mean what he said. Oh! Mr. Andrews. How do the colored people know that you mean what you say, now?

THE ISSUE.

It is now neither practical nor timely to discuss the constitutionality, justice or wisdom of the "Reconstruction" Acts, or to find, in the entire absence of either, any excuse for omitting to act under them,—so far, at least, as the elections are concerned.

One stern, real, solemn fact stares the people in the face: An election for a Convention, and for delegates thereto, is to be held on Tuesday and Wednesday next.—The probabilities are so decided, as to almost amount to a certainty, that a sufficient number of votes will be polled on the question of Convention to secure its call.

THIS, then, is the issue: Shall the Conservative white men of North Carolina control that Convention, or shall it be surrendered,—without every honorable and lawful effort of which we are capable, as men, to prevent it,—into the hands of ignorance, inexperience, and passion,—into the hands of wicked, designing men, whose motto is rule and ruin!

See of what elements the Conventions in Alabama, Virginia, Louisiana, and other States, are composed. They are made up of unworthy, bad and illiterate white men, and ignorant, turbulent and excited blacks. So far as the Radical nominations have been made known in this State, the evidence is, that if North Carolina is to pass into Radical clutches, her Convention will be no improvement upon the Jacobin assemblies in the other States. But we can prevent this, if we will make the proper effort. We can save the land of Davie, Macon, Gaston, Henderson, and other bright names of the past, from such degradation.

Remember that a Convention, controlled by ultra Radicals, means negro supremacy in North Carolina!

Remember that such a Convention means disfranchisement and proscription of all white men, who do not bow the knee to Baal!

Remember that such a Convention means such a tax upon the white landowners of the State as will amount to practical confiscation!

Remember that it means such a policy as will deter immigration, prevent the influx of capital, paralyze industry, cripple trade, make money and bread scarcer, and labor harder to obtain, leading to the depression of the colored, as much as of the white race!

Remember that a Convention, controlled by those who are opposed to the mad and bad schemes of Radicalism, means protection to all the citizens of the State, white and colored, in the enjoyment of their rights;—that it means conciliation, mutual good will, and peace;—that it means such a policy as will bring hope and prosperity to the State;—will dignify labor and secure its rewards;—in one word, that it means that while white men shall continue to govern the State in the future, as in the past, that no man shall be oppressed or deprived of any of his just immunities as a citizen, on account of color.

North Carolina presents the one oasis in the South in the midst of a black and arid waste. Shall we give it up, too, tamely, without an effort? Never! Never!!

THE HON. JEMU BAKER, in his late speech in Tucker Hall, said that one hundred thousand negroes fought for the Union, in the Federal army, and that it would be a reflection upon the gratitude of the nation, if they were denied the privilege of the ballot. Nearly all of that 100,000 were raised, or now live, in the North, and yet they are not allowed to vote there. The great mass of the negroes of the South, in one way or another, aided the "rebellion." Yet the latter are allowed to vote, and, as we said, the former are not. Party is at the bottom of the whole business. In a few years, when the negro race shall have materially diminished, and when it can no longer be made serviceable for party ends, the Radicals will be the bitterest enemies of the unfortunate race. Mark the prediction!

WE LEARN that Harris, the negro nominee for the Convention, repeated his offer, at a Radical meeting in the Court House, on Saturday night, of $10 for the photograph of every colored man who should presume to vote for a Conservative. This is a part of the game of brow-beating and intimidation that is being pursued towards those colored men, who dare to "call their souls their own." Harris must either be very flush, or he has a poor opinion of the independence and honesty of his race.—Mostly, probably, the latter,—as, it is said he has frequently been heard to declare that the majority of them were not fit to exercise political privileges.

THE DIFFERENCE.—We have, in this City and State, quite a large and a very meritorious and industrious foreign population. No men in our midst have so much reason to be opposed to the designs and tendencies of Radicalism. They are required to pass through a five years' probation, before they are privileged to vote, while Radicalism invests the Southern negro with the right, without reference to his qualifications, experience or fitness.

JOHNSTON COUNTY.—There is 800 white majority in this County, and our advices from there are most encouraging. Johnston, heretofore, has been pretty effectually ramified by the Leagues and other mischievous Associations, but the people are leaving them in disgust and abhorrence. Messrs. L. R. Wadkell and Chas. E. Preston, the Conservative candidates, are making an efficient and active canvass. Their election is almost certain.

HARRIS, the negro candidate for the Convention, is reported to have spoken very contemptuously of "white folks" in his Saturday night's speech. We reckon "white folks" can survive it. But can "white folks" vote for Harris? Not, we should think, without disguising their color.

THE LINCOLN Courier approves the proposition to hold a Conservative State Convention on the 11th. prox. The delegates heretofore appointed in that county are authorized to attend.

PROGRESS OF THE CANVASS.—We are gratified to learn that the developments of the canvass in this County are most hopeful and satisfactory. The superiority of the Conservative ticket, in all respects, is so manifest to every one, white or black, that its success cannot be doubtful.

Even men, heretofore reckoned among Republicans, have become so much ashamed and disgusted with the Radicals, that they are coming out and declaring themselves in favor of the People's ticket. Many colored men express themselves as dissatisfied with it and determined to vote with the Conservatives.

The men on the Conservative ticket can be relied upon. They are not only intelligent enough to do right, but they are gentlemen whose purpose to do justly to every one cannot be called in question. Unfortunately for the black ticket, where there is some virtue there is too little sense, and where the brain lies, there is little reliability.

CANDIDATES.—Col. Jas. E. Matthews is a Conservative candidate for the Convention in Stokes.

The Radicals of Mecklenburg have nominated Ed. Fullings and —— Glewis for the Convention. No body ever heard of either of them before.

Nereus Mendenhall and Jonathan Harriss, Esqrs., gentlemen well known for consistent Unionism, are the Conservative candidates for the Convention in Guilford.

THERE WAS NOT a single Radical County officer elected in the State of Maryland, at the recent elections. This is what may well be called a "clean sweep."

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

A SHORT CAMPAIGN AMONG THE QUAKERS.

NEW GARDEN, N. C.,
Nov. 6th, 1867.

The denomination commonly known as Quakers object to this title. The technical name they prefer is "Friends." Their Church is named "The Society of Friends."

West of Greensborough, N. C., some six miles, there is a centre of this body, that was formed over a century ago, and to this day is maintained to the fullest extent.

THE OLD MEETING HOUSE.

The Central point of this Friend element of North Carolina is an old Church edifice, built long before the Revolution. It was used by the troops, during part of the war of '76, as a hospital. It is very antique looking. A partition runs across the room, dividing it into two equal parts. This partition contains extensive openings, with shutters, which are closed during business meetings, the women transacting their affairs on one side, the men on the other.—During public worship, these shutters are thrown open.

The pulpit is a sort of judge's stand, running the whole length of the building, and is occupied by both sexes.

This is New Garden. At present an immense convention is in session here, called the "yearly meeting."

It is attended by not only North Carolina Friends, but representatives from Maine, New York, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Minnesota, Ohio, Tennessee, and there are five delegates from old Ireland, two male, and three females. An Irish Quaker! Catholic Ireland represented at a Quaker meeting! And stranger than all, the old Irish lady delegate is named Bridget. A quakeress asked her in my hearing, "Bridget, when does thee return to Ireland?" "Honey dear," said the good lady, "next seventh day week, and I'll be on the could ocean."

EXCOMMUNICATION.

I hear, not from the best authority, I confess, that when the Friends excommunicate a member, they take him to a little side door, and gently put him out of the church: and that this is the origin of the phrase "turning out of the Church."

CHANTING.

Every part of public worship is done in a chanting tone. They never sing psalms or hymns. Their service consists of voluntary speaking or praying, just as any are moved to take the lead. But whether praying or speaking, all adopt the singing tone. They never announce the chapter or verse of their texts. They have no ordination.—When it is discovered that a certain Friend speaks often and well, the monthly meeting makes an entry of the fact and the party's name, and this at last gets to the books of the quarterly meeting, and this speaker is, by mutual consent, a minister. They get no salaries. They administer no sacraments.

FEMALE PREACHERS.

Some of their best preachers are women. They say Paul's injunction against women speaking does not refer to preaching, but to other sorts of address; that there were prophetesses of old, and they claim to get abundant authority from the Bible.

BENEVOLENT LABORS.

These Friends are warm advocates of Bible circulation, Sabbath schools and week-day schools. During this yearly meeting they have a special time set apart for the consideration of these various schemes. Of late there has been a sort of Normal School in this vicinity that might be imitated by others with profit. The teachers from different parts of the State, connected with the Society of Friends, meet to spend some two-thirds of their summer vacation, reviewing and cross-questioning one another. A member of the Convention is selected to preside. He or any one else propounds all sorts of hard questions in Geography and Arithmetic. The result is, they all go back to their schools wiser than when they came.

LITERATURE.

One of the principal publishing houses of this order, is in Richmond, Indiana. From their presses there, large quantities of varied literature is constantly emanating. They are devoted to reading, and their conversation shows no little familiarity with history, political and natural, and all substantial reading. It is easy to imagine that novels find little currency among so plain a people.

THE QUAKER COLLEGE.

Within a quarter of a mile of the old meeting house stands the time worn College of the Society of Friends. It is very old, very large, and a very excellent school. It provides for males and females. The system is thorough. I have an idea, from what I see, that the educating done by a conscientious Quaker would be as reliable as the old fashioned shaker flannel. A purer people hardly live on the earth.

SPURGEON AND FOX.

Last November the celebrated Spurgeon delivered, in London, a set lecture upon the character of George Fox, one of the founders of the Society of Friends. He lauds him highly, as a bold, good and true man.

AGRICULTURE.

True to the instincts of nature, the Friends are great advocates of agriculture, in all its branches. A meeting is to be held to-night, to consider the twin questions of "day schools and agriculture."

Lately the Baltimore Friends have purchased a piece of land in this county, near High Point, which they are now engaged in converting into a model farm, to furnish an example of what can be done with poor land. Dr. Sampson, of Washington, D. C., is on the ground getting the model farm under way. If signs do not deceive, this farm will be heard from some day. These Friends are eminently wise and practical people, versed of old in the uses of the plough. I presume they know what they are about. I shall keep an eye upon this model farm, and expect to see it some day.

CÆSAR AND HIS IMAGE.

The world well knows how these people are noted for peace. A warm advocate among them was asked, in my presence, how he explained the dilemma they were in respecting the rebellion: they opposed the war, yet paid the five hundred dollar exemption tax. Well, he replied, they took up that question in the meeting, and talked it over. And the conclusion arrived at was, that as there were some of the Confederate Notes that had Jefferson Davis' image on them, they would gather up such bills and pay them in for the tax, and this would only be rendering to Cæsar his own image and superscription.

A PARTLY QUAKERESS.

Under a dove-colored bonnet, to-day, after the meeting, my eye, given to wander, lit upon a pair of eyes that took me by storm. Mild—soft—gentle—dark—round, meek. They made me think of the Italian Painter. When asked what was the color of Champagne wine, he said it was just the color of a pheasant's eye. However, on reflection, I think I had better drop this part of my letter—or I have a foreboding that I shall be made to wish this description had never reached a certain post office in N. C.

THE FASHION OF THIS WORLD.

The peculiarities of dress, so characteristic of the Friends, is fast giving way in this fast America. It is painful to witness it. Nothing seems more out of place than a chignon upon a Quakeress, yet I saw many in meeting, regular chignons. They are bad enough on an enemy's head, but maiapropos on a Friend's. Balmorals and Bradley's Hoop skirts are common among them. It is chiefly as they get older, that they adopt the peculiar cut of coat, broad brim hat, etc. The younger ones are given to fashions to some extent. A little six year old, with a shad-bellied coat, is a sight. I do not wonder he gets a store coat after the Robt. Andrews' style, when he gets old enough to manage for himself.

WISE PROVERBS.

The Friends make a dead set at certain evils, and they have some beautiful mottoes, on their side. Of neutrality, they say: "A wise neuter joins with neither.

"Interest," they say, "has the security, not the virtue, of a principal."

"Passion is a sort of fever of the mind; it leaves us weaker than it finds us."

"The truest end of life, is to know that life never ends."

"Form is good, but not formality."

"Bene qui latuit, bene vixit—he lives well who leads a private life."

"Love of God is a servant promoted to be a master."

"They have a right to censure, who have a heart to help."

The reason they give for opposing the free use of liquor is, they say, because "in the end it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder." (Holy Writ.)

MARSHAL NEY.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I was very much entertained with the account given by your correspondent of the supposed identity of the school master of Cabarrus and Marshal Ney If true, this would be almost a match for the story of Dionysius of Corinth.

Of the same Marshal Ney, the present writer has heard another tradition, confidently believed by the relaters. The tradition is that the Marshal was really a native of this country, born in or near the town of Elkton, Md. That his proper name was Rudolf, I think Michael Rudolf; that he emigrated to France during the revolution in that country; entered the armies of the republic, and fought his way up, during the empire, to the distinction of Marshal, and of being accounted "the bravest of the brave,—one of the very few men, (such was the judgment of Bonaparte,) whose courage could be daunted by no alarm of any kind, in any circumstances. I heard many reasons assigned for the truth of this strange story. Some of them, I thought at the time, very plausible, though I was not convinced by them, considering the whole matter as very mythical. I have forgotten nearly all of them. One, if I remember right, was that the Marshal spoke very good English, an accomplishment he was not likely to acquire in France. Did the Marshal speak good English? Did the school master of Cabarrus?

I have a faint impression that there was once published, or said to be published, a pamphlet, (I never saw it,) giving an account of the Marshal's course as Michael Rudolf.—The story, I am very confident, was believed by at least some members of the Rudolf family. H.

COMPROMISE—QUALIFIED SUFFRAGE.

We observe that many of the ablest and best Conservatives in the State are taking ground in favor of compromising our political difficulties, and effecting a restoration of the State to her former relations with the Federal Government upon the basis of qualified suffrage. We published in our last a very able article from an experienced statesman taking that ground. A short time since we published the very able letter of Governor Graham to the Raleigh meeting, in which though he did not exactly take ground in favor of it, he left us to infer that he would not oppose it as a base of settlement, should it meet the views of the Conservatives of the State generally. Among the Conservative candidates for the Convention, we observe that many of the ablest and most distinguished are taking the same ground. Among these we will mention Judge Fowle, of Wake, and the candidates in this county and Davie, all men of intelligence. We mean not to disparage others, when we say, that should Judge Fowle, and Mr. Robbins, of this place, be elected, they will be among the very ablest members of that body. They are men, whose opinions are entitled to great weight on any subject. —Old North State.

WENDELL PHILLIPS AND GENERAL GRANT.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 9.

Wendell Phillips made a speech yesterday in the town of Kennett Square, Chester County, Pa., at a gathering of the "Friends of Freedom." He said he was decidedly opposed to placing General Grant in the position of President, for his sentiments were unknown. He said "he did not want to see intelligent people cheated a second time." "General Grant," he continued, "was a Democrat and a West Pointer—two elements that have rarely made a Radical."

A special telegram to Forney's Chronicle says Thad. Stevens may leave for Washington next week, "but I think it extremely doubtful that he can appear in the House.

THE ELECTION.

Remember that the election for delegates to the Constitutional Convention, and for or against a Convention, takes place on the 19th and 20th days of the present month. All who vote in that election will have to do so at THE PRECINCTS AT WHICH THEY REGISTERED, as the lists have been made out only for those precincts.

CONSERVATIVE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE FOR WAKE:—Messrs. H. O. Parker, Chairman; Jeptha Horton, J. H. Separks, Peter Fleming, Alvis Sorrell, J. P. H. Russ, R. C. Badger, M. A. Bledsoe, G. H. Alford, Berry Dagwell, Ruffin Holder, Reuben Fleming, J. S. Neathery, G. H. Faribault, N. J. Whitaker, Wm. Laws, and J. J. L. McCullers.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Large Grape Farm for sale, in Halifax County. This is unquestionably one of the finest properties in the country, affording a splendid field for enterprise: Garrett & Co., 33 Warren St., New York, or Dr. J. G. Garrett, Whitaker's Station, Wilmington and Weldon R. R.

Builders' Materials, Mechanics' Tools, Agricultural Implements: Mitchell, Allen & Co.

W. H. Crow, General Agent of the celebrated Ætna Life Insurance Company, again displays the advantages of that great institution. Another loss of $5,000 will be promptly paid in a few days, as all others have been paid before it. Read Mr. Crow's advertisement.

Good Hard Coal: Douglas Bell, Market Square.

The Store lately occupied by Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker is for rent. Possession given immediately.

AN OLD VOTER.—We learn that the Third Board in this County registered a white citizen, who had attained the extreme age of 103 years. He is a good Conservative, of course. No man of his experience and extended observation, who has "grown with the growth" of the Government, could be a Radical.

THE ELECTION.—Mr. Lamson, of the Third Board of Registration, has kindly given us an inspection of some of the papers and instructions bearing upon the election next Tuesday. The polls will be opened at 8 o'clock, A. M., of each day, and closed at 4, P. M. In voting for delegates, both the Christian and surname must be given in full.

Mr. L. also exhibited to us a form of ticket, which has been received. It corresponds precisely with that mentioned in another column, as having been seen by the Editor of the Wilmington Journal. We infer, from the general tenor of the Election Notices, however, which are to be publicly posted throughout the State, that any ticket having on it the words, "For a Convention," or "Against a Convention," with the names of delegates voted for, will be all that is necessary, provided the Christian and surnames are given.

No ticket will be received that is not folded and endorsed, in writing or printing: "For Convention and Delegates."

There seems to be no provision made for non voting on the subject of Convention, but voting for Delegates; or non voting for Delegates, but voting on the question of a Convention.

Let every voter post himself thoroughly in these matters.

MILITARY.—We learn that three companies of Federal troops, or about 180 men, reached this City on yesterday. Some of them are to be retained here, and others are to be sent West. We believe that they belong to the 8th Infantry.

THE REGULAR monthly meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association of Raleigh will be held, this evening, at 7 o'clock, at the Session House of the Presbyterian Church.

The members are urgently reminded of the importance of full and prompt attendance.

An address will be delivered before the Association concerning its operations and objects. The public, and especially the young men of the city, are invited to attend.

CORN sold in Charlotte, on Saturday last, for $1 per bushel. This is a fair price.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN JONES.

On Wednesday, the 30th. inst., in pursuance to a short notice, a portion of the Conservatives of Jones County met at the Court House in Trenton; where, on motion of Col. Nethercutt, Capt. F. G. Simmons was called to the chair, and L. F. Koonce, Esq., requested to act as Secretary. The object of the meeting was explained by the Chairman, in a few brief and pertinent remarks, when, on motion, a committee of seven was appointed to draft resolutions for the consideration of the meeting, consisting of the following gentlemen, viz: Thomas Wilcox, E. W. Haywood, F. McDaniel, J. H. Nethercutt, Benj. Brock, Jr., Thomas J. Whitaker and Jas. C. Bryan, who, after a short consultation, reported, through Mr. Haywood, the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, We, citizens of Jones, a portion of the Conservative party, having publicly assembled to consult upon those matters that vitally concern our present and future calling, and to give expression to their views, therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That the people of Jones county are a law abiding and a law loving people, and are at all times willing to submit to the authorities of the United States and State of North Carolina, while they feel bound to protest against the late act of the military authorities, in removing from office a portion of the Justices and Sheriff of this county, as an unjust imputation upon their loyalty and patriotism.

Resolved, 2d. That we hail the results of the late election in the North as an indication of a more fraternal spirit towards their unfortunate fellow-citizens of the South, and tender them our thanks for this evidence of their sympathy and good wishes for our prosperity.

Resolved, 3d. That it is the imperative duty of Conservatives, to use all honorable means to send to the Convention, should one be called, men of Conservative principles, opposed to the fanatical schemes of the Radical party, and men of mature judgment and sterling integrity; and as a suitable person to be voted for by the citizens of Jones, to represent them in said Convention, the name of James F. Dillahunt is respectfully recommended.

The report of the committee was unanimously adopted, and Mr. Dillahunt being present, came forward, and with a few very appropriate remarks accepted the nomination.

F. D. Koonce, of Onslow, being present, in response to loud calls from all parts of the house, entertained the meeting for some half an hour or more, with an elegant and sound talk, frequently being cheered by the audience.

On motion, the proceedings of the meeting were ordered to be published in the Newbern Journal of Commerce, the Raleigh Sentinel, and other Conservative papers are requested to copy.

The meeting then adjourned.

F. G. SIMMONS, Ch'm.

L. F. KOONCE, Sec'ry.

DIED.—At his residence near Chulahoma, Miss., on the 20th. ult. of dyspepsia, Col. Richard Philips. He was born in Wake county, N. C., in 1811, and was one of the first settlers of North Mississippi. His funeral sermon was preached by Elder Brooks, of the Methodist Church, of which Colonel Philips was a consistent member, and he was buried with the honors of Masonry.

Col. P. was a man of large intelligence, and served several terms in the Legislature for this county. It has been said, if you would know a man, learn what his neighbors say of him, and Col. P. was beloved and esteemed by his neighbors, as was evidenced by the large concourse of friends attendant at his burial. He was a man of integrity, a useful member of society, and a good neighbor, a kind husband and father, and we believe a christian. To his afflicted family we offer our sincere condolence. Peace to his ashes.—Jackson (Miss.) Clarion.

WHAT THE ELECTIONS TEACH.—The lesson to be learned from these recent elections is easy and plain. It means that the people condemn the military reconstruction laws, the tenure of office bill, and all the violent coercive measures of the last and present Congress, and declare that all such legislation shall be swept away. It means the repudiation of both the Copperhead and Jacobin factions, and a determination to take a new departure with new men and a new line of policy. It means that while the loyal men of the North demand the full consummation of the freedom of the negro race, and favor their enfranchisement under State laws, with a property qualification, as in Northern States, they also demand the instant abolition of military governments in the Southern districts, the generous treatment of the white citizens of the South, and their speedy restoration to their lost rights. It means a reform in our whole financial system, and a reduction of the national expenditures and taxation.—N. Y. Herald.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF RAILROAD COMPANIES.—The question whether a Railroad Company which has printed on its tickets that it is not responsible for more than one hundred dollars' worth of baggage can be made to indemnify a traveller for a lost trunk, has again been settled against a Railroad Company in Brooklyn. The Judge held that in the hurry of travel a party was not to be held responsible for reading all the printed matter that might be stuck at him through a ticket window on the back of his ticket.

THE TRIAL OF MR. DAVIS.—It may be now regarded as morally certain that Mr. Davis' trial will not take place at Richmond on the fourth Monday of November. We are informed from very good authority that Mr. Davis will be upon the spot, and his counsel will be prepared to proceed, but there will scarcely occur anything more than the formalities required for the regular continuance.—Balt. Gazette.

THE TRIAL OF MR. DAVIS.—Despite all the statements to the contrary, District Attorney Chandler, of Virginia, says the trial of Jefferson Davis will proceed this term; that the government has made all its arrangements to that effect; and that he has notified the counsel for Davis that he would be ready to proceed on the 25th. instant.—Wash. Chronicle.

Somebody asked of the editor of the Mississippian the latitude and longitude of Vicksburg, Mississippi. He answered: Vicksburg is on the parallel of Military Despotism, and thereby exposed to a high old African heat. Its longitude may be calculated by observing the long faces of the Radicals, since hearing the result of the late elections.

In his address at the Agricultural Fair at Danville, Mr. Venable advised the young men of Virginia and North Carolina to seek their fortunes in tilling the earth, to find land and work, to eschew politics and let professions alone, as the readiest and most effectual mode of reconstructing their shattered fortunes. Most excellent advice.

A farmer sent to town a few days ago to employ some labor for the purpose of shucking his corn crop. He offered to pay the price that has been customary heretofore, but the negroes refused to go, alleging that "the League" did not permit them to work at those rates!—Fredericksburg Herald.

Forney is writing editorials in favor of hanging Jeff. Davis. Is there another man in the world vile enough and malignant enough to advocate such a thing!

It is ascertained from a reliable source that the Government will be ready to proceed with the trial of Mr. Davis on the 25th. Both sides, however, desire that Chief Justice Chase shall preside with Judge Underwood, and therefore it is possible that the trial may be postponed for a short time to enable Chase to make arrangements to preside. Legal considerations alone prompt the desire that the two Judges should sit on the case.

HOME CERTIFICATES

From Physicians.

We hereby certify that the Rosadalis is prepared by a Physician, who is an experienced Pharmaceutist and Chemist, and that his remedy is an efficient and reliable one in SCROFULA, Syphilis, &c., it having performed some remarkable cures in this vicinity.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examed its Formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Teritary Syphilis, [one a terrible case of eight years' standing,] in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
A. B. NOBLES, M. D.

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify, that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee—and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—[one tumor reached a large size.] The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was attended with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever, &c.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

Wilson, N. C., May 6th, 1867.

I hereby certify that I was cured of long standing Chronic Rheumatism, by taking four bottles of Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis.

JAMES WILLIS.

Rosadalis cures Carbuncles, Boils, Pimples, &c.

Certificate from an old and much respected citizen of Greene County, now a resident of Wilson, N. C.

I hereby certify that, during the summer and fall of 1866, that I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles—having had as many as fourteen large Carbuncles, and twelve ordinary Boils. I suffered so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine.

W. A. DARDEN, Sr.

Wilson, May 11th, 1867.

Consumption, in its Early Stages, can be Cured.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 4th, 1867.

DEAR DR. LAWRENCE:—My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated disease of the lungs by your "Rosadalis," I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nealy two years with a hard cough, which troubled her day and night; at last the emaciated form, glossy eye, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that it was Consumption, beyond question, eating at her vitals. Our Physician's remedies brought no relief. She was advised to try your Rosadalis as a tonic—which she did—imagine my surprise and gratification, when I found her appetite returning. Slowly she regained her strength, her cough and night sweats gradually ceased, and she is now, after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever.

Yours respectfully,
MRS. E. ANN SMITH.

Rosadalis cures all Skin Diseases.

Salt Rheum Cured! Remarkable Cure!!

DR. LAWRENCE, Wilson, N. C.:

My Dear Sir—For the last ten years (until recently) I suffered with an inveterate eruption of the skin—called by physicians "Salt Rheum," with which I suffered terribly; the pain and itching was almost intolerable. I tried several of the best physicians in Europe and this country—have visited several celebrated Springs—spent thousand of dollars—and failed to get any better. In December 1866, being in Charleston S. C., I was told by a gentleman at the hotel, that he had been cured of a bad letter by a medicine called "Rosadalis." I resolved to try it, without any hope though of its doing me any good. I procured a bottle of Messrs. King & Cassidey, and commenced taking it. Finding, to my surprise, that I was improving, I bought four other bottles; but before commencing on the last two, I found I was completely well—the disease having entirely disappeared.

Enclosed find "One Hundred Dollars," which please accept as a token of my gratitude. Why do you not make your invaluable Rosadalis widely known?

Your sincere friend,
W. T. SELTZER.

Major John W. Dunham, one of the editors of the Wilson "North Carolinian," says in the issue of the 20th April, 1867: "I believe from personal experience, that the Rosadalis is the finest tonic ever prepared."

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1867.

THE BEAUTIFUL LAND.

There's a Beautiful Land by the spoiler untrod,
Unpolluted by Sorrow or Care;
It is lighted alone by the presence of God,
Whose throne and whose temple are there;
Its crystaline streams, with a murmuring flow,
Meander through valleys so green,
And its mountains of jasper are bright in the glow
Of a splendor no mortal hath seen.

And throngs of glad sinners with jubilant breath,
Make the air with their melodies rife;
And one known on earth as the Angel of Death,
Shines here as the Angel of Life!
An infinite tenderness beams from his eyes;
On his brow is an infinite calm,
And his voice, as it thrills thro' the depths of the skies,
Is as sweet as the Seraphim's psalm.

Through the amarsanth groves of the Beautiful Land
Walk the souls who were faithful in this;
And their foreheads, star-crowned, by the zephyrs are fanned
That evermore murmur of bliss;
They taste the rich fruitage that hangs from the trees,
And breathe the sweet odor of flowers
More fragrant than ever were kissed by the breeze
In Araby's loviest bowers.

Old Prophets, whose words were a spirit of flame
Blazing out o'er the darkness of Time;
And Martyrs, whose courage no torture could tame,
Nor turn from their purpose sublime;
And Saints and Confessors, a numberless throng,
Who were loyal to Truth and to Right,
And left, as they walked thro' the darkness of Wrong,
Their foot-prints encircled with light;

And the dear little children, who went to their rest,
Ere their lives had been sullied by sin,
While the Angel of Morning still tarried a guest,
Their spirits' pure temple within—
All are there—all are there—in the Beautiful Land,
The land by the Spoiler untrod,
And their foreheads, star-crowned, by the breezes are fanned
That blow from the Gardens of God!

My soul hath looked in through the gateway of dreams
On the city all paven with gold,
And heard the sweet flow of its murmurous streams
As through the green valleys they rolled;
And though it still waits on this desolate strand,
A pilgrim and stranger on earth,
Yet it knew, in that glimpse of the Beautiful Land,
That it gazed on the home of its birth!

Gen. Canby's Election Order.

HEADQ'RS SECOND MILITARY DIST.,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 18, 1867.

General Orders No. 101.

By the terms of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," passed March 2d, 1867, and of the Acts of March 23d, and July 19th, 1867, supplementary thereto, it is made the duty of the Commanding General of this Military District to cause a registration to be made of the male inhabitants of the State of North Carolina, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards and qualified by the terms of said Acts to vote, and after such registration is complete, to order an election to be held at which the registered voters of said state shall vote for or against a Convention, for the purpose of establishing a Constitution and civil government for the said State, loyal to the Union, and for delegates to said Convention—and to give at least thirty days' notice of the time and place at which said election shall be held; and the said registration having been completed in the State of North Carolina, It is ordered:

First, That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 19th day of November, 1867, and ending on Wednesday, the 20th day of November, 1867, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For a Convention," or "Against a Convention," and for delegates to constitute the Convention—in case a majority of the votes given on that question, shall be for a Convention, and in case a majority of the registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such Convention.

Second. It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days the registration lists, and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered, to strike the name of such person from the list; and such person shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such registers the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts—who have not already been registered.

Third. In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists the Boards will be guided by the law of March 2d, 1867, and the laws supplementary thereto and their attention is specially directed to the Supplementary Act of July 19th, 1867

Fourth. The said election will be held in each County or District at such places as may hereafter be designated, under the superintendence of the Boards of Registration as provided by law, and in accordance with instructions hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the Acts of Congress and as far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Fifth. All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

Sixth. The polls shall be opened at such voting places at eight o'clock in the forenoon, and closed at four in the afternoon, of each day, and shall be kept open during these hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election as a delegate in the Convention, shall serve as a Judge of the election in any County or District which he seeks to represent.

Eighth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of elections, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the Sheriff of the County is empowered to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers, to the other polling places, as may, in his judgment, best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Ninth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering, or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited, and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of elections to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority.

Tenth. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail, will be closed from 6 o'clock of the evening of the 18th of November, until 6 o'clock of the morning of the 21st of November, 1867, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Eleventh. Military interference with elections "unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 25th, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Twelfth. The returns required by law to be made to the Commander of the District of the results of this election, will be rendered by the Boards of Registration of the several registration precincts through the Commanders of the Military Posts in which their precincts are situated, and in accordance with the detailed instructions hereafter to be given.

Thirteenth. The number of delegates to the Convention is determined by law and is the number of members of the most numerous branch of the Legislature for the year eighteen hundred and sixty, and this number, one hundred and twenty, is apportioned to the representative Districts of the State in the ratio of registered voters as follows:

RAILROADS.

ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD
AND
NORTH CAROLINA
GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD,
From Charlotte and all Points on the N. Carolina and its Connecting Railroads, to the Seaboard at Newbern and Morehead City.

THE STATE OWNS THREE-FOURTHS OF the North Carolina Railroad and three-fourths of the ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD. This is the

STATE LINE,

To its OWN SEAPORTS and on its OWN ROADS. All other lines are in opposition.

A six per cent dividend on this line will save the people from taxation $295,000 per annum.

Under a resolution of the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, all Freights are to go via Goldsboro', unless otherwise specially directed by shippers.

When at Goldsboro', you are only sixty miles from the shipping point, instead of one hundred and sixty via Weldon, and eighty via Wilmington. Our Steamers are equal to any other line, both for Freight and Travel. Time as short as by any other, and as cheap.

THIS is the Line

To ENCOURAGE. You get dispatch, safety, but one handling, and less Railroad transportation than by any other line.

Three-fourths of the PROFITS made on this line go directly into the STATE TREASURY, and if encouraged, you will soon be relieved from heavy taxation at least two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars.

The Railroads composing the N. C. GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY LINE have recently agreed to unite in a

GREAT THROUGH LINE

Route to all the Northern Markets, on equal terms and charges, via our own ports to and from the North.

Cars run through to all points without breaking bulk.

For information about shipping, apply to Messrs.
WHEDBEE & DICKINSON, Baltimore.

ALL STATE

THE OLD RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD, THE SHORTEST, QUICKEST, SAFEST AND BEST LINE, NORTH AND SOUTH, TO BE LEFT OUT IN THE COLD, UNLESS SHIPPERS SPECIALLY SAY VIA. R. & G. R. R!

WE inaugurated and are the Great through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of Shippers, North and South, for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand Shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the State near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her Interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come $40,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

NOTICE!

The Great Inland Air Line Freight

THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine

IS OFFERED TO THE Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which, being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; "a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench."

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause. You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify. I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory, or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.

Send for a Circular.
